AND THE WINNERS ARE . . .

Salvatore Ferragamo, Brazil Touch at SFP

Manhattan -- There were two sessions and two winners at the Soccer For Peace Cup last week.

Salvatore Ferragamo won the morning-afternoon tournament and Brazil Touch took home the trophy from the afternoon-evening competition.

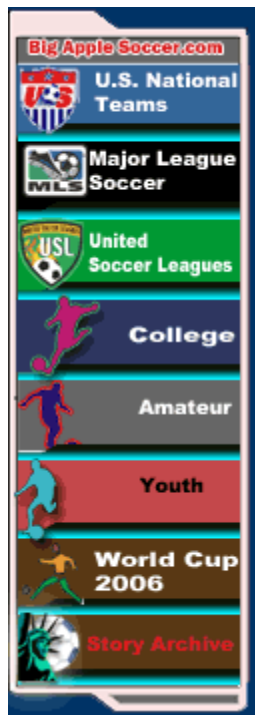

Salvatore Ferragamo, which had the company as a corporate sponsor, defeated Svensktoppen, 5-1.

Brazil Touch defeated Unicorn Magic in the other session, although the score of the final was not known.

Soccer For Peace did not record actual final scores in the spirit of its organization.

"The guys played hard," said goalkeeper Lorenzo Quaptropchi, Salvatore Ferragamo's game captain for the competition. "We played well. Dominated.

"We're happy to come out here and play soccer for such a good cause.

Soccer For Peace is a beautiful cause. We're just glad to be out here to represent us and our company."

Svensktoppen participated because it was a chance to play soccer and help a cause, according to player Magnus Karlberg, an attorney.

"We're playing because we have a great group of guys," he said. "We like to get together. We play once a week in Chelsea. We thought it would be a nice summer event.

"It's a great cause. I think more events like this . . . is something commendable. I think many small steps lead to possibly the resolution of the problems in the Mideast."
